(c) if he has, before such appointment, received a retirement gratuity in respect of such previous service by the pension equivalent of that gratuity.

6. Removal of Lokayukta or Up-Lokayukta.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Article 311 of the Constitution, the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta may be removed from his office by the Governor on the ground of misbehavior or incapacity, and on no other ground:

1. Substituted by section 2 (c) of Rajasthan Act No. 8 of 1968, published in the Rajasthan Gazette Part IV-A, Extra ordinary, dated 7-4-1988 w.e.f. 1-4-1986.
Provided that the inquiry required to be held under clause (2) of the said article before such removal-

(i) In respect of Lokayukta shall only be held by a person appointed by the Governor being a person who is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Chief Justice of a High Court; and

(ii) In respect of an Up-Lokayukta shall be held by a person appointed by the Governor being a person who is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or who is or has been a Judge of High Court.

(2) The person appointed under the proviso to sub-section (1), shall submit the report of his inquiry to the Governor who shall, as soon as may be, cause it to be laid before the House of the State Legislature.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Governor shall not remove the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta unless an address by the House of the State Legislature supported by a majority of the total membership of that House and a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of that House present and voting, has been presented to the Governor in the same session for such removal.

7. Matters which may be investigated by Lokayukta or Up-Lokayukta. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken by, or with the general or specific approval of-

(i) a Minister or a Secretary; or

(ii) any public servant referred to in sub-clause (iii) of clause (i) of section 2; or

(iii) any other public servant being a public servant of a class or sub-class of public servants notified by the State Government in consultation with the Lokayukta, in this behalf, in any case where a complaint involving an allegation is made in respect of such action can be or could have been, in the opinion of the Lokayukta, the subject of any allegation.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an Up-Lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken by, or with the general or specific approval of, any public servant not being a Minister, Secretary or other public servant referred to in sub-section (1) in any case where a complaint involving an allegation is made in respect of such action or such action can be or could have been, in the opinion of the Up-Lokayukta, the subject of an allegation.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) the Lokayukta may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, investigate any action which may be investigated by an Up-Lokayukta under that subsection whether or not a complaint has been made to the Lokayukta in respect of such action.

(4) Where two or more Up-Lokayuktas are appointed under this Act, the Lokayukta may, by general or special order, assign to each of them matters which may be investigated by them under this Act:

Provided that, no investigation made by an Up-Lokayukta under this Act and no action taken or thing done by him in respect of such investigation shall be open to question on the ground only that such investigation relates to a matter which is not assigned to him by such order.

8. Matters not subject to investigation.—(1) The Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta shall not investigate any action—

(a) in respect of which a formal and public inquiry has been ordered under the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850 (Central Act 37 of 1850), with the prior concurrence of the Lokayukta;

or

(b) in respect of a matter which has been referred for inquiry under the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 (Central Act 60 of 1952) with the prior concurrence of the Lokayukta.

(2) The Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta shall not investigate any complaint which is excluded from his jurisdiction by virtue of a notification issued under section 19.

(3) The Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta shall not investigate any complaint involving an allegation, if the complaint is made after the expiry of five years from the date on which the action complained against is alleged to have taken place.

9. Provisions relating to complaints.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a complaint may be made under this Act to the Loka-yukta or an Up-Lokayukta in the case of an allegation, by any person other than a public servant:

Provided that, where the person aggrieved is dead or is for any reason unable to act for himself, the complaint may be made by any person who in law represents his estate or, as the case may be, by any person who is authorised by him in this behalf.

(2) Every complaint shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by such affidavits as may be prescribed.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment, any letter written to the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta by a person in police custody, or in gaol or in any asylum or other place for instance persons shall be forwarded to the address unopened and without delay by the police officer or other person in-charge of such gaol, asylum or other place and the Lokayukta or Up-Lokayukta, as the case may be, if satisfied that it is necessary so to do, treat such letter as a complaint made in accordance with the provisions of sub section (2).

10. Procedure in respect of investigations.- (1) Where the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta proposes (after making such preliminary inquiry as he deems fit) to conduct any investigation under this Act by, he—

(a) shall forward a copy of the complaint or, in the case of any investigation which he proposes to conduct on his own motion, a statement setting out the grounds therefor, to the public servant concerned and the competent authority concerned;

(b) shall afford to the public servant concerned an opportunity to offer his comments on such complaint or statement; and

(c) may make such orders as to the custody of documents relevant to the investigation, as he deems fit.

(2) Every such investigation shall be conducted in private and in particular, the identity of the complainant and of the public servant affected by the investigation shall not be disclosed to the public or the press whether before, during or after the investigation:

Provided that, the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta may conduct any investigation relating to a matter of definite public importance in public, if he, for reasons to be recorded in writing, thinks fit to do so.
(3) Save as aforesaid the procedure for conducting any such investigation shall be such as the Lokayukta or, as the case may be, the Up-Lokayukta considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) The Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta may, in his discretion refuse to investigate or cease to investigate any complaint involving an allegation, if in his opinion-

(a) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, or is not made in good faith; or

(b) there are no sufficient grounds for investigating or, as the case may be, for continuing the investigation; or

(c) other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case it would be more proper for the complainant to avail of such remedies.

(5) In any case where the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta decides not to entertain a complaint or to discontinue any investigation in respect of a complaint, he shall record his reasons therefor and communicate the same to the complainant and the public servant concerned.

(6) The conduct of an investigation under this Act, in respect of any action shall not affect such action, or any power or duty of any public servant to take further action with respect to any matter subject to the investigation.

11. Evidence.- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section for the purpose of any investigation (including the preliminary inquiry, if any, before such investigation) under this Act, the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta may require any public servant or any other person who in his opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the investigation to furnish any such information or produce any such document.

(2) For the purpose of any such investigation (including preliminary inquiry), the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta shall have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely:-
(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
(c) receiving evidence on affidavits;
(d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;
(e) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;
(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) Any proceedings before the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of section 193 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Central Act 45 of 1860).

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), no obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information obtained by or furnished to the State Government or any public servant, whether imposed by any enactment or any rule of law, shall apply to the disclosure or information for the purpose of any investigation under this Act and the State Government or any public servant shall not be entitled in relation to any such investigation to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed by any enactment or by any rule of law in legal proceedings.

(5) No person shall be required or authorised by virtue of this Act, to furnish any such information or answer any such question or produce so much of any document-

(a) as might prejudice the security or defence or international relations of India (including India’s relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation), or the investigation or detection of crime; or

(b) as might involve the disclosure of proceedings of the Cabinet of the State Government or any Committee of that Cabinet, and for the purpose of this sub-section a certificate issued by the Chief Secretary certifying that any information, answer or portion of a document is of the nature specified in clause (a) or clause (b), shall be binding and conclusive.

(6) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) no person shall be compelled for the purposes of investigation under this Act to give any evidence or produce any document which he could not be compelled to give or produce in proceedings before a Court.

12. Reports of Lokayukta and Up-Lokayuktas-(1) If, after investigation of any action in respect of which a complaint involving an allegation has been or can be or could have been made, the Lokayukta or an Up-Lokayukta is satisfied that such allegation can be substantiatated either wholly or partly, he shall report in writing communicate his findings and recommendations along with the relevant documents, material and other evidence to the competent authority.

(2) The competent authority shall examine the report forwarded to it under sub-section (1) and intimate within three months of the date of receipt of the report, the Lokayukta or, as the case may be, the Up-Lokayukta, the action taken or proposed to be taken on the basis of the report.

(3) If the Lokayukta or the Up-Lokayukta is satisfied with the action taken or proposed to be taken on his recommendations or findings referred to in sub-section (1), he shall close the case under information to the complainant, the public servant and the competent authority concerned, but where he is not so satisfied and if he considers that the case so deserves, he may make a special report upon the case to the Governor and also inform the complainant concerned.

(4) The Lokayukta and the Up-Lokayukta shall present annually a consolidated report on the performance of their functions under this Act to the Governor.

(5) On receipt of a special report under sub-section (3) or the annual report under sub-section (4), the Governor shall cause a copy thereof together with an explanatory memorandum to be laid before the House of the State Legislature.

(6) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 10, the Lokayukta may at his discretion make available, from time to time, the substance of cases closed or otherwise disposed of by him or by an Up-Lokayukta, which may appear to him to be of general public, academic or professional interest, in such manner and to such persons as he may decree appropriate.

13. Prosecution for false complaint.- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10 or any other provisions of this Act, whoever willfully or maliciously makes any false complaint under this act
